PartyUp · Party night kit

Truth: answer honestly. Dare: do it or skip your turn. Never have I ever: anyone who has done it raises a hand. Who's most likely: on three, everyone points at someone.

The party die

Cut the outline, fold on the lines, glue the grey tabs. Roll it, then draw a card of the type it lands on.

Party bingo

One grid per team. Tick a box when it happens. First full row: that team picks the next dare.

#1

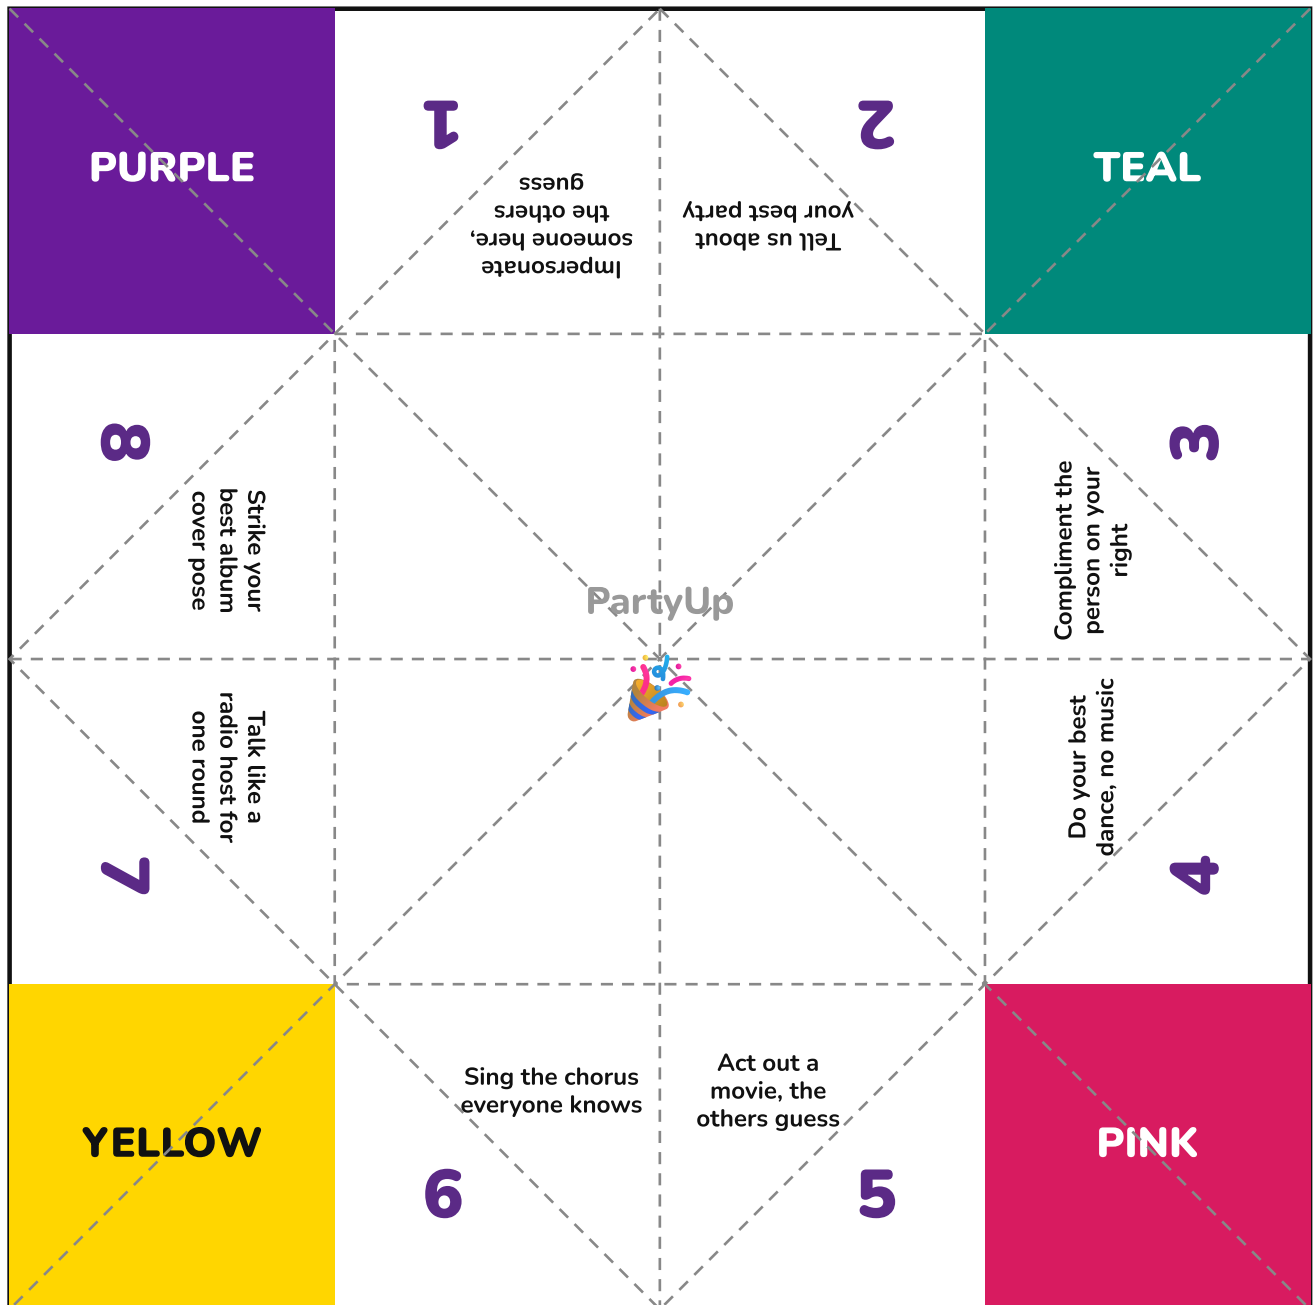

Someone looks for the phone in their hand	Someone says “last song!”	Someone says “I’m heading out soon” and stays	Someone talks about work
Someone laughs until they cry	Everyone ends up in the kitchen	Someone suggests a group photo	Someone plays their favorite song
Someone tells a vacation story	Someone talks about the weather	Someone sings off-key, loudly	A debate goes on and on
The chips are already gone	The speaker cuts out mid-song	Someone brings a homemade dish	Someone falls asleep on the couch

#2

Someone says “I’m heading out soon” and stays	The chips are already gone	Someone arrives late	Someone tells a vacation story
Everyone ends up in the kitchen	Someone talks about the weather	Someone laughs until they cry	Someone looks for the phone in their hand
Someone suggests a group photo	A debate goes on and on	Someone talks about work	Someone falls asleep on the couch
Someone does an impression	Someone needs a phone charger	Someone sings off-key, loudly	Someone brings a homemade dish

The dare fortune teller

1. Cut out the big square.
2. Printed side down, fold the 4 corners into the center.
3. Flip it over, fold the 4 new corners into the center.
4. Fold in half, slide your thumbs and index fingers under the 4 colors.
5. A player picks a color, spell it while opening the fortune teller, then a number, and read the dare hidden underneath.

Coloring: the disco ball

Fine markers work best. One color per tile, or go full sparkle.

Mint lemonade (alcohol-free)

Makes one big pitcher, 6 glasses

- 4 lemons
 - 1 L (4 cups) of cold water, still or sparkling
 - 4 tablespoons of sugar (or agave syrup)
 - 1 bunch of fresh mint
 - Ice cubes
1. Juice 3 lemons and slice the last one.
 2. Dissolve the sugar in the juice.
 3. Add the water, the slices and the mint leaves, crushed between your fingers.
 4. Chill for 30 minutes, then serve over ice.

Tip: freeze mint leaves in the ice cube tray, they look great in the glasses.

Party awards

Everyone votes once per category. No voting for yourself.

Category	Name	Votes
Best outfit
Best dance move
Longest laughing fit
Best story of the night

There's more in the app

These 20 cards come from three free PartyUp games: Truth or Dare, Never Have I Ever and Who Among Us. In the app: plenty more Soft mode cards, free, and the Spicy mode as a paid option, for adults-only parties.

All year round: dozens of party games, and a multiplayer mode where everyone plays on their own phone.
